

CAMP COSTS

Kids 'n' Cancer Ministry is one of the very few organizations offering a complete camping experience for the entire family, rather than for the cancer-afflicted child alone. The cost of sending a child to camp for four days is $300. The cost for an average-sized family of four is $1200. With your generous support, the ministry is able to keep these camps operational each year and to open new ones, at an average cost of $30,000 per camp. The benefit for the children and their families is priceless!
